DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of claims 1-6 in Paper No. 10 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 7-10 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite because Applicant has positively recited the human body as part of the claimed invention. See line 4 "encasing the residual limb and lying between". Proper form would read as ---to encase the residual limb and adapted for placement between---.

Art Unit: 3738

Claims 2-6 are indefinite because it is unclear if Applicant is claiming the subcombination of the apparatus (membrane) or the combination of the apparatus, liner, and artificial limb socket. Claims 2-6 have been examined as the combination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Crawley et al. US PN 5,397,628. Crawley et al. discloses an osmotic membrane for artificial limbs of amputees. See lines 32-38 of column 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3738

4. Claims 2-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Crawley et al. US PN 5,397,628 in view of either Caspers US PN 5,549,709 or Helmy EP 0870485.

Crawley et al. meets the limitations of claims 2-6 but lacks the express disclosure of the artificial limb comprising a weight activated vacuum pump, vacuum regulator, and the particular polyurethane suspension sleeve serving as a seal means. However, both Caspers '709 and Helmy '485 teach that it is well known in the art to provide a weight activated vacuum pump, vacuum regulator, and a polyurethane suspension sleeve serving as a seal means in order to provide a comfortable and tight sealing artificial limb. See columns 6-8 (Caspers) and columns 6-7 (Helmy).

Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the artificial limb disclosed by Crawley et al. to include a weight activated vacuum pump, vacuum regulator, and a polyurethane suspension sleeve serving as a seal means in order to provide a comfortable and tight sealing artificial limb as taught by both Caspers '709 and Helmy '485.
